Lifetime Achievement Award

The Lifetime Achievement Award is to be presented annually to someone who has made a major contribution to the field of correctional education during their professional work life. The award will honor an individual's longevity within the profession because he/she provided leadership, vision and momentum toward excellence. The Lifetime Achievement Award may be awarded to a teacher, counselor, supervisor, manager, administrator, aide, employee of CEA, or any other position which involved education as its primary duty. This award, however, is not for someone who has only given a few years of service, gained sudden notoriety, or given political support in the short term; it is meant to reflect a lifetime of service to the correctional education field. The honor can be awarded posthumously or to someone still living. In any given year if there are no nominations, or if a nomination does not meet the eligibility criteria, the award will not be presented. The deadline for application is April 1 of each year.

Austin MacCormick Award

The Austin MacCormick Award recognizes an individual who has demonstrated best practices. The winner must be a CEA member. The practices/program should be able to be replicated and implemented by correctional educators in order to develop or modify their own program. The deadline to apply for this award is April 1 of each year.

Correctional Education Advocate Award

The Correctional Education Advocate Award is an award for a candidate who skillfully promotes the purpose of correctional education, actively campaigns to initiate and continue educational programming in correctional settings; enthusiastically supports correctional educators and their students; proficiently defends the significance of correctional education and publicly places a value on educating inmates. The deadline for the application is April 1 of each year.

Ralph Kaplan Memorial Award

The Ralph Kaplan Award is an award that is given to a presenter who will demonstrate the use of technology and/or promote technology through his/her conference presentation. The presentation to be considered is to be given at a conference. The winner of the award will receive a $200.00 honorarium. The deadline to apply is April 1 of each year.

Teacher of the Year Award

The CEA recognizes teaching excellence by celebrating Teacher of the Year winners from each of the CEA Regions. Each Region is encouraged to select a Teacher of the Year to be recognized at the upcoming national conference. Regional Directors are encouraged to select their teachers soon and to submit their information by June 1st to the National Office and the National Secretary (Awards Committee Chair).
