FORWARD

The Directory of State Prison Librarians has been developed for the purpose of improving communication between the often-isolated librarians working in state correctional libraries and to serve as a resource and networking aid. It includes names, addresses, telephone and fax numbers, email addresses, and employing agencies of librarians working in adult and juvenile correctional libraries.

This Directory began as a project of the ASCLA Library Service to Prisoners Forum of the American Library Association. This Committee, as well as the American Correctional Association Libraries Committee, is involved in:

1. Formulating, promoting and implementing standards for library service in correctional institutions,
2. Providing guidance in the establishment and improvement of libraries in these correctional institutions,
3. Raising the consciousness of people within the library and correctional community regarding the particular library and information needs of all prisoners,
4. Serving as clearinghouses for information, ideas, materials, programs and human resources for correctional library services and
5. Promoting cooperation among library and correctional agencies. It is important that you contribute to the valuable work of these committees by joining these professional organizations.

LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

1. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
2. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
3. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
4. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.
5. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.
6. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

Adopted June 18, 1948. Amended February 2, 1961, June 27, 1967 and January 23, 1980, by the ALA Council.

RESOLUTION ON PRISONERS' RIGHT TO READ

WHEREAS, The right to read is a fundamental concern of the American Library Association, and

WHEREAS, Censorship is a problem for many prisoners and for librarians providing materials and information for prisoners, and

WHEREAS, Several states have statutes or regulations regarding prisoners' right to read, as California Penal Code Section 2601 (c), which provides that prisoners have the right: to purchase, receive, read, and permit other inmates to read any and all legal materials, newspapers, periodicals, and books accepted for distribution by the United States Post Office, except those which describe making of any weapon, explosive, poison or destructive device. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the right of prison authorities (1) to open and inspect any and all packages received by an inmate, and (2) to establish reasonable restrictions as to the number of newspapers, magazines and books that the inmate may have in his cell or elsewhere in the prison at one time.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the American Library Association urges that legislation and/or administrative regulations similar to California Penal Code Section 2601 _ be secured in all states without such provisions,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the American Library Association shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Intellectual Freedom and Legislation Committees of all ALA State Chapters, urging them to work with agencies and persons concerned with prisoners' right to read to secure similar legislation and/or administrative regulations.

Adopted by the Association of Specialized and Cooperative Library Agencies Executive Board, January 26, 1982.
